

MIRRORS PROJECT

ANALYSIS of FRENCH OPINION SURVEY on GENDER DISCRIMINATION 2014

Question 1 :

The majority of students think that boys and girls are both appreciated at the same level by their teachers.

Question 2 :

All girls think that their parents expect them to have good grades to find a good job regardless of their gender.

Question 3 :

The students consider that education is important for boys and girls equally.

Question 4 :

The students' parents also consider that education is important for boys and girls equally.

Question 5 :

While at home, some girls are expected to do more housework than boys, in the majority of families, boys and girls are expected to do equal amounts of housework.

Question 6 :

The majority of girls think men are treated more respectfully than women in society at large, but the majority of boys think that both are respected equally.

Question 7 :

More girls think that high beauty standards in the media are applied to girls only. However a large number think that they are applied to boys and girls equally. Some boys think that the high beauty standards are applied to boys only.